WHO ARE WE? HOW WE WORK?

We are required by law to provide you with a range of information about our company and our activities. Therefore please read the following and feel free to contact us if you have any query.

Status as an insurance intermediary

Sealogy represents multiple Insurers and acts as a multiple general agent, within the meaning of Section 34d (1) of the German Commercial Code. The activity of the Sealogy corresponds to that of an „Underwriting Agent or MGA“ provided with far-reaching powers of attorney on behalf of the the insurers. The yacht owner can therefore be certain that declarations made to Sealogy as well as premium payments to Sealogy are deemed to have been received by the insurer. Sealogy offers all services - from conclusion of the contract, documentation, full claims services incl. financial settlement of claims Sealogy is remunerated by the insurers in the form of commission included in the insurance premiums.

Market-Relationships

Sealogy is a specialist MGA who has constantly developed new insurance concepts for yachts in co-operation with international insurers. Over the years Sealogy has been devising new "niche products" and due to in depths studies of the insured risks and available market intelligence, we managed to produce well balanced results for our insurers, a fact, that allows us to maintain coverage in areas, where other insurers had to withdraw. Today we are set to meet new and exciting challenges in cooperation with international partners.

It should be noted that Sealogy offers you its own insurance products developed with the participating insurers as standard and cannot provide a more extensive selection of other insurers or products from other insurance lines.

The respective insurance company covering your insurance products can be found within your policy. We are authorized by the following insurer:
